

Australian
National University

INTERNATIONAL TAX DESIGN FOR THE 21ST CENTURY: EVALUATING BEPS AND LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

Online Webinar on Zoom

Details to be provided on registration:

<https://events.unimelb.edu.au/Tax/event/12640-evaluating-beps-and-looking-to-the-future>

PROGRAM

Evaluating BEPS and Looking to the Future – Program

Thursday, 2 December 2021
Start of webinar (day 1) 6pm (AEDT); 7am (UK); 8am (Paris)
6pm	Opening remarks	Chair, Professor John Howe, Director, Melbourne School of Government Welcome and opening remarks
6.10pm	Session 1	Professor Miranda Stewart, University of Melbourne The Legal and Institutional Impact of BEPS Reforms in Australia
6.30pm		Ms Maryanne Mrakovcic, Deputy Secretary, Australian Treasury Australia's Approach to BEPS Reforms: Lessons for Policy Development Launch of Policy Brief series: International Tax Design for the 21st Century
6.55pm	Q&A, Discussion
7.05pm	5 minute break
7.10pm	Session 2	Chair: Professor Miranda Stewart; introductions
7.15pm		Mr David Bradbury, Head, Tax Policy and Statistics Division, OECD Evaluating BEPS and anti-BEPS: OECD approaches
7.45pm		Professor Richard Collier, Centre for Business Taxation, Oxford University The arm's length principle after BEPS and the Pillars
8.10pm	Q&A, Discussion
8.30pm	Close of day 1 Webinar
Friday, 3 December 2021 Program (Day 2)
Start of webinar (day 2) 8.10am (AEDT); 4.10pm Thurs Washington DC; 3.10pm Thurs Chicago
8.10am	Introductions	Chair, Professor Robert Breunig, TTPI (ANU)
8.15am	Session 1	Evaluating BEPS and anti-BEPS: International Perspectives
		Professor Dhammika Dharmapala, University of Chicago Law School US Multinational Enterprises and Profit Shifting
8.40am		Mr Ruud de Mooij, International Monetary Fund Evaluating BEPS and anti-BEPS measures Past and Future
9.05		Ms Vicki Perry (former Assistant Secretary, IMF Fiscal Affairs Dept) The Global Impact of BEPS Reforms
9.20am	Q&A, Discussion
9.40am	10 minute break
9.50am	Introductions	Chair, Professor Miranda Stewart, Melbourne University
	Session 2	Profit Shifting and New Approaches in Australia
		Hon Associate Professor Alfred Tran, Ms Wanmeng Xu, ANU An Australian study of cross-border profit shifting channels
10.15am		Professor Kerrie Sadiq, Queensland University of Technology, Professor Rick Krever, University of WA and Ms Devika Bhatia, University of WA Formulary apportionment and the extractives industry
10.40am	Q&A, Discussion
11.00am	10 minute break
11.10am	Introductions	Chair: Professor Miranda Stewart
	Panel Presentations and Facilitated Discussion	BEPS Reforms: Perspectives from inside and outside government
		Mr Hector Thompson, Deputy Commissioner Public Groups & International, Australian Taxation Office Reflections on BEPS – an Administrator's perspective
		Mr Marty Robinson, A/g First Assistant Secretary, Corporate and International Tax Division, Revenue Group, Australian Treasury BEPS Reforms and Pillar Two
	Q&A	Professor Graeme Cooper, University of Sydney BEPS 2.0: Making the world safe for Americans
12.30pm	Thank you, close of webinar	